DECISION AND ORDER

BY CHAIRMAN PEARCE AND MEMBERS GRIFFIN
AND BLOCK

On August 27, 2009, the two sitting members of the National Labor Relations Board issued a Decision and Order in this proceeding, which is reported at 354 NLRB 453.¹ On June 17, 2010, the United States Supreme Court issued its decision in New Process Steel, L.P. v. NLRB, 130 S.Ct. 2635 (2010), holding that under Section 3(b) of the Act, in order to exercise the delegated authority of the Board, a delegatee group of at least three members must be maintained.

In a motion filed October 2, 2012, the Acting General Counsel requested, in view of the Court's decision in New Process Steel, that a duly constituted Board review this case. The Acting General Counsel asserts that a decision by the Board is needed to assist in establishing the history of the Respondent's recidivism and furnish the basis for broader remedies. The Acting General Counsel's motion is unopposed.

The Board has considered the judge's decision and the record in light of the exceptions and briefs and has decided to affirm the judge's rulings, findings, and conclusions and to adopt the recommended Order to the extent and for the reasons stated in the decision reported at 354 NLRB 453 (2009), which is incorporated herein by reference.²

Sharon Block, Member

(SEAL) NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD

¹ Effective midnight December 28, 2007, Members Liebman, Schaumber, Kirsanow, and Walsh delegated to Members Liebman, Schaumber, and Kirsanow, as a three-member group, all of the powers of the National Labor Relations Board in anticipation of the expiration of the terms of Members Kirsanow and Walsh on December 31, 2007. Thereafter, pursuant to this delegation, the two sitting members issued decisions and orders in unfair labor practice and representation cases.

² We do not, however, incorporate the personal statements of former Member Schaumber in fns. 3 and 4 of the two-member decision.
